- Set up a web hosting account online with Microsoft Azure database and app hosting service
- Set server firewall rules to allow access to the database
- Use the Database.sql to recreate the database with your Azure online database account
- Load project into visual studios and use visual studio tools to upload project to Azure. Configure the project file to your own hosting needs and use the built in publish feature to Publish your project
- Use the link to find project data https://github.com/Brando54321/latestupdatesCS3750